Nature of the Lawsuit: In the lawsuit Mantha v. QuoteWizard.com, LLC. ("QuoteWizard"), Plaintiff Joseph Mantha alleges that he and others received multiple telemarketing text messages from entity known as Drips, LLC ("Drips") promoting QuoteWizard services, despite being on the National Do Not Call Registry. The lawsuit claims that, because of these texts, QuoteWizard violated the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 ("TCPA") because it prohibits telemarketing to people on the National Do Not Call Registry.

Am I A Class Member? The Class certified by the Court consists of all persons within the United States (a) whose telephone numbers were listed on the Do-Not-Call Registry, and (b) who received more than one telemarketing text within any twelve-month period at any time from Drips, (c) to promote the sale of QuoteWizard goods or services, and (d) whose numbers are included on the Class List.

You are a class member if: Your telephone number was on the National Do Not Call Registry for at least 30 days, and you received telemarketing calls from Drips to promote the sale of QuoteWizard goods or services two or more times in a twelve-month period and your number is listed on the Class List.

Your Options: If you want to remain a Class member you do not need to do anything now. You can choose to exclude yourself from the class action by [DATE]. Instructions on how to exclude yourself are in the Long Form Notice at www.INSERTWEBSITE.com, which also includes more detailed information about the case.
